

Scholar-In-Residence

New Toco Shul ♦ 2003 Lavista Road

Rabbi Michael J. Broyde

Shabbat Parashat Vayikra, April 4 – 5

Friday Night

Short devar torah on Sacrifices and unintentional sin

Shabbat Morning – Davening at 9:00 am

(approximately 10:45 am)

Jewish Law and International Law

Shabbat Afternoon (6:30 pm, 60 minutes before Mincha)

[NOT EXACTLY] SHABBAT HAGADOL DRASHA

Rethinking Redemption

During Seudah Shelishit

Corporation and Chametz on Pesach

Rabbi Michael J. Broyde is professor of law at Emory University School of Law, the director of the SJD Program, and Berman Projects Director at the Center for the Study of Law and Religion at Emory University. He is also a core faculty member at the Tam Institute of Jewish Studies at Emory and teaches Jewish Law at Columbia Law School. He was the Founding Rabbi of the Young Israel in Atlanta.

Shabbat Lunch Program

Pre-panel discussion with Rabbi Michael Broyde and Rabbi Michael Berger on AI, Jewish Education, and Halacha followed by a delicious fleishig lunch

$10 a person/$36 maximum per family

Go to <https://www.newtocoshul.com/form/broyde-2025.html> to RSVP.

Reservations must be received by Monday, March 31.

Thanks to our Sponsors

Rabbi Michael and Channah Broyde, Ezra and Kitty Cohen, Aryeh and Lisa Elon, Leroy and Ariana Fass, Bob and Judith Hara, Jon and Amy Rolnick, Sylvan and Helene Wallenstein

It's not too late to add your sponsorship! Speak with Rabbi Seeman or Rabbi Travis